Outcome-Based Education Workshop

Group photo

Outcome-Based Education or better abbreviated as OBE has been advocated by the Malaysian Ministry of Education (MOE) as the basis for higher education in Malaysia. International College of Advanced Technology Sarawak (i-CATS) was among one of the higher educations in Sarawak which offers many first-rate courses. Therefore, as a higher education institution, it is essential for us to master the basic requirement to be an excellent and a high-quality institution surpassing the other education institutions. For that reason i-CATS had organized OBE workshop for all i-CATS staff from all campuses within Sarawak including all Heads of Units of Technical Vocational Education Training (TVET) from Pusat Pembangunan Kemahiran Sarawak (PPKS).

Considered as the biggest training or workshop ever organized by PPKS since early 2014, a number of 88 staff participated in this meaningful event. Organized for two days from 24 until 25 May 2014, the workshop aimed to expose participants with the concepts, philosophies and principles of OBE as well as why or how OBE should be implemented in higher learning education, as urged in the government's policies and regulations.

An OBE expert, Haji Mohamed Nadziri bin Mohd. Yusuf was invited to help and coach the participants on the subject matter. Working as a lecturer at UiTM Puncak Alam, he also works as a consultant and auditor with the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA). His vast experience includes handling OBE workshops for other higher institutions all over Malaysia since 2011 and to date he has delivered 65 presentations and lectures.

The two day workshop was fun and enjoyable as participants were involved actively in the discussion. The facilitator shared his knowledge and expertise, including facts with comprehensive explanations for better understanding.

The facilitator complimented all participants for their excellent participation throughout the workshop and for rising up various issues during the Q&A session. The great teamwork and cooperation among the staff had made the workshop a successful meeting. 🌟

Quality Enhancement Through Team Building Programme

PPKS/i-CATS Miri had held a team building programme for its staff at Borneo Tropical Rainforest Resort, Miri from 10 till 11 May 2014. The 2 days and 1 night Team Building

Programme aimed to strengthen the relationship amongst staff and enhancing the quality of work culture. Various activities were conducted during the programme that included motivational talks, outdoor games, karaoke sessions, group presentations, dinner and many other exciting activities. 🌟

i-CATS's Mechanical Engineering Programme Emphasizes a Balance between Innovation and Societal Needs

One of the central tenets of the Diploma in Mechanical Engineering (DME) programme at the International College of Advanced Technology Sarawak (i-CATS) is that true innovation, far from being a flash-in-the-pan fad, benefits society as a whole.

At i-CATS, mechanical engineering students appreciate the importance of innovation and technological advances in fostering an environmentally sustainable society. In this respect, a major point of pride is the i-CATS Green Technology Laboratory which enables engineering students to acquire theoretical knowledge and practical skills in the study of hydro power technology, solar photovoltaic technology, wind turbine technology and various other sources of renewable energy. This enriches the mechanical engineering curriculum which covers the design, manufacture and maintenance of mechanical devices for industrial processes. It is this exposure to cutting-edge technologies coupled with a strong foundation in the core principles and practice of mechanical engineering acquired during the three-year DME programme which gives i-CATS students the competitive edge as they prepare for careers in the field of mechanical engineering or further studies at the degree-level.

With full accreditation by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA), the DME programme is open to students who have completed SPM/SPMV with a minimum of three credits including Mathematics and one science subject. Applications will also be considered for those who have completed an MQA Accredited Certificate in Engineering/Technology programme with a minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average of 2.0.

Industrial visits are an integral part of the holistic learning experience at i-CATS, facilitating the learning experience of students during the course of their studies. Indeed, gaining insights directly from the industry brings to life various concepts taught in class and is a step in the right direction as one prepares to be world-ready.

To add to their repertoire of technical and soft skills, during the course of their studies students also take management, entrepreneurship and communications subjects. In addition to a final-year project, prior to the completion of the DME programme students are required to undergo a 3-month internship. This ensures that the students have the opportunity to learn directly from the industry and gain real-world work experience at world-class organizations.

In the twenty-first century, trailblazing advances in the development of new technologies, products and services have resulted in a wide range of career opportunities for mechanical engineering graduates across the length and breadth of modern-day industry in sectors such as automation, automotive, aerospace, biotechnology, computers, electronics, energy conversion, environmental control and other manufacturing-based activities. Indeed, backed by i-CATS's emphasis on career-focused learning, the DME students are well prepared to excel in their chosen professions.
